New York Banking Circles a Little Surprised.

UNCERTAINTY STILL EXISTS.

The United States Subtreasury at New York Paying Out Gold in Settlement of Clearinghouse Balances and For Government Checks—Condition of the Treasury at Washington.

NEW YORK, July 18.—Much curiosity has been shown in banking circles as to the cause of the treasury officials voluntarily paying out gold in settlement of clearinghouse balances, and for government checks over the counter when some form of currency would have been more desirable to the payees.

Conrad N. Jordan, assistant United States treasurer, in this city, was questioned about this and asked for an explanation, especially in view of the fact that it had been supposed the government was desirous of building up the gold reserve again to the $100,000,000 limit. Mr. Jordan declined to give any reason for the treasury paying out gold as stated, but suggested that it might be due to a desire to provide for some need for a supply of currency at not a distant date. He scouted the suggestion, however, that has been made that it was because the government did not wish to issue any more gold certificates, which it must do as soon as the gold reserve is $100,000,000, the theory of the suggestion being that gold is more readily hoarded in that form, the government storing it free of cost.

From another source it was learned that the government had been paying out gold because it feared that unless it made provision in time it would be unable to supply the demands for currency that it expects may be made upon it in a short time for moving the crops.

Leaving out the $5,000,000 in greenbacks, which the government requires to keep on hand for redemption purposes, the United States treasury only has now about $15,000,000 of greenbacks (legal tender notes) available, counting the supplies at all the subtreasuries. If, as has been supposed, the great scarcity of currency has been caused by the precautionary measures taken by the banks throughout the country to fortify themselves during the recent stringency, and the currency is in the vaults of those country banks, then there will not be a very great demand on the treasury for currency to move the crops; but, if as has also been suggested, the missing currency is not locked up in the country banks, but is hoarded by the people, then the United States treasury expects to have all it can do to supply the demand upon it for currency during the next few weeks. Such, at any rate, is the explanation of a responsible person for the treasury paying out gold instead of currency to the New York banks. The question whether the country or the people have been hoarding the currency can be told when a comparison is made of the reports to the comptroller last week with their report six months ago.

Condition of the Treasury.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Heavy clearinghouse payments in New York caused the gold reserve to fall lower than it has been for several days past, and $340,880 less than it was on Saturday. The reserve yesterday amounted to $98,039,480; currency balance $20,117,018.

The Star gives publicity to the following statement in regard to the gold payments from the United States subtreasury in New York:

"A considerable effort is being made by financial agents here to discover the motive behind the payments. But the department is as close-mouthed as a clam. The explanation got through private sources is that the department is trying to take advantage of the scarcity of small and convenient currency for internal business to pinch the banks as the banks have pinched the government by storing gold. The banks are greatly in need of small bills for current business transactions and for use in the agricultural districts. The theory is advanced that, if they cannot get what they need of this sort of currency by any other means, they will have to make terms with the treasury which would involve their exchanging gold certificates in large quantities for notes and certificates of small denominations."

It is said that the department can afford to pay out gold on the drafts presented by the banks, if, by so doing, they can cut off the source through which the banks would get their small notes and put them to sufficient inconvenience to bring them to terms. The banks understand that if they want small notes and certificates they can secure them by taking large quantities and paying for them in gold, and it is the theory of the department that by pinching them pretty close they can be forced to do this.

MYSTERIOUS KILLING.

One Way of Getting Rid of an Offensive and Dangerous Man.

COLUMBIA, S. C., July 18.—"Dub" Meetze, white, was killed in Lexington county Sunday night by persons unknown. He was regarded as a "wolf-head" in Lexington, having a most unsavory reputation. He was run out of the state a year ago for horse stealing and warned not to return. He did return, however, and dodged around in the woods to escape notice.

He wanted his wife to mortgage her place in order to raise money for him. She refused, and he threatened to burn her house. Last Wednesday night her house was burned to the ground, and she and her children narrowly escaped death. It was reported that Dub Meetze had threatened to kill one, or two people and to burn the houses of several others who had exposed some of his villainies. The sheriff and a posse searched for him but without avail.

Sunday night the sheriff was at the house which Meetze had threatened to burn. He heard shots, and, going to the barn of Mrs. Meetze, found Meetze lying with many wounds. He died shortly after being discovered without naming his slayers, and the coroner's jury brought in a verdict of death from wounds inflicted by unknown parties.

BANK FAILURES.

Three Concerns in Denver Close Their Doors.

DENVER, July 18.—Commercial circles are greatly excited over the failure of three banks in this city yesterday. The banks constituting the triple failure are the Colorado Savings bank, the People's Savings bank and the Rocky Mountain Dime and Dollar Savings bank. An estimate of the total assets is $1,500,000, and liabilities are placed at nearly that amount.

Charles H. Blakeny was made assignee of the Rocky Mountain Dime and Dollar Savings bank, of which F. W. Woodbury is president and G. F. Clark cashier. No detailed statement has been given out, but from the books of the institution, the assets are $150,803.58 and the liabilities $105,565.32. The officers of the bank are positive in the statement that depositors will not lose a dollar.

The Colorado Savings bank, of which F. R. Atkins is president and C. O. Atkins cashier, in their statement to the assignee, Alfred Butters, place the open accounts due depositors at $435,108.50; certificates of deposit, $50,099.36; due other banks, $31,236.95. Their assets over liabilities in what is declared to be good commercial paper, well secured, is $73,063.72.

No statement of the People's bank can be secured as yet.

It is understood that all the assignments were preconcerted and were done for self-protection and the protection of depositors.

The direct cause of the failures was the stringency of the money market and inability to realize on securities. The president of each bank declares that each depositor will be paid in full and that the institutions will resume again.

An incipient run has been started on the Denver Savings bank. The bank is taking advantage of the 30 and 60 days' notification provision and is paying out no checks or drafts for more than $20 each.

Two Banks Suspend.

KANSAS CITY, July 18.—The Bank of Grand Avenue and the Missouri National bank suspended payment at noon. They are both leading institutions. Nearly all the banks in the city were heavily drawn on last week by depositors and for a time a panic reigned.

Creditors Out in the Cold.

LIMA, O., July 18.—Conrad Bitzer, senior member of Bitzer & Company, one of the largest furniture and carpet establishments in the city, made an assignment. Before assigning he gave his father, Conrad Bitzer, Sr., of Napoleon, O., a mortgage for $10,000 and the Ohio National bank of this city mortgage for $2,700. The creditors are left out in the cold and will get little or nothing.

Failure at Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 18.—George K. Schofield, for many years an extensive dealer in horses and vehicles, made a deed of assignment to Walter J. Hubbard of all his property. Preferences were given many creditors by bills of sale, the largest being one of $8,000 to the assignor's brother, Frank Schofield. The assets are estimated at $20,000 and liabilities at $35,000.

Woolen Mills Assign.

MADISON, Ind., July 18.—The Carrollton Woolen Mills company made an assignment to H. M. Winslow. Liabilities, $75,000; assets unknown. The cause is attributed to the stringent money market.

SERIES OF FAMILY BRAWLS.

Revolvers and Knives Used in a Disturbance at Donaldsonville, Ind.

BRAZIL, Ind., July 18.—A series of family brawls came near resulting in a bloody murder at Donaldsonville, a small place east of this city. George Jackson, a very black negro who married a white woman, was shot three times in the back, but not fatally, by Roberts Howard, another colored man.

Mrs. Jackson had been quarreling with the colored neighbors, insisting that even if she married a negro she was better than they. She assaulted Howard's family, and swore she would cut the husband and wife to pieces and blow up the house with dynamite. Howard armed himself and went over to Jackson's. Words passed between the men, when Howard drew a revolver. Jackson turned to run, but was shot three times in the back. His injuries were slight. Jackson seized a shotgun and discharged it at his pursuer, doing little damage. Howard is in jail under heavy bond.

Convict Attempts Suicide.

PITTSBURG, July 18.—P. A. Stout, one of the most trusted convicts in the western penitentiary, tried to commit suicide by jumping from the door of the rotunda of the prison into the yard below. He fell on a pile of broken stone and received probably fatal injuries. Stout's crime was the murder of his son while under the influence of liquor. He was serving a sentence of 12 years. A petition for his pardon is pending.

Steamer Wrecked.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—A telegram received here states that the steamer Emily was wrecked and is a total loss at Coos bay. She is a passenger and freight steamer plying between San Francisco and Coos bay.

THREE PEOPLE DEAD.

Eight Others Badly Injured in Chicago.

TRAIN RUNS INTO A STREETCAR.

Three Men Arrested and Will Be Held Until the Coroner Investigates Into the Cause of the Disaster—Names of the Killed and Injured.

CHICAGO, July 18.—Forty-ninth street, at the crossing of the Grand Trunk railroad, was the scene of another accident whereby three lives were lost and eight people injured. A Halstead street horsecar was run into and hurled 80 feet to one side. It was filled with men and women, 46 passengers being on board.

The dead are:

Thomas Perkins.

Margaret Murphy.

Unidentified boy.

The injured are:

Mrs. Sanderson, head and body bruised.

J. C. Smith, internally injured and skull fractured; may die.

Mrs. Celia Mitchell, bruised about the body.

Mrs. S. A. Lacey, bruised about the head and body.

Mrs. Vanderberg, head and body bruised.

Frank Vanderberg, her 3-year-old son, head cut and body bruised.

Jennie Blakely, head and shoulder bruised.

The collision occurred about 5:30 o'clock. The southbound Halstead streetcar, of open make, was crowded and men were standing on the foot boards. It was in charge of Conductor Frank Barnett and Driver Charles Statnecker. At Forty-ninth street is a network of tracks and the crossing has always been regarded as a dangerous one. A long freight train going west had just passed and the tower man, George Barnett, had raised the gates. This was taken as a signal that the way was clear and Statnecker whipped up his horses as he started to drive across the tracks. Previously, however, Conductor Barnett had gone ahead and not able to see the approaching passenger train because of the freight he motioned his driver to go ahead.

Barnett, in the watch tower, saw the passenger train and realized that a collision was imminent. Yet, as he says, he could do nothing. He at once lowered the gates, but he was too late for the streetcar was already on the tracks and the passenger train only a few feet distant. It was running at a lively rate of speed, it is said, and crashed into the side of the car. The latter was turned around and then was thrown 80 feet through the air.

Few of the passengers had any warning of the accident. Those on the footboard nearest the passenger train saw it coming and jumped in time to save themselves from injury and perhaps death. But the majority of those on board were carried with the demolished car, and they fell to the ground together, some with badly bruised bodies and others dead.

The car, broken into many pieces, buried those who had been riding in it and as the passenger train plunged ahead there were many cries of pain and agony to be heard. Perkins and Dillon were frightfully mangled. A piece of timber had been forced down the latter's throat breaking his jaw. There were also two women killed, but nothing on them would indicate their names. The dead were at once taken to the county morgue and the injured were placed in carriages and driven away.

The passenger train was in charge of Conductor John Kern, Engineer E. W. Jones and Fireman James Campbell. Engineer Jones said that he did not see the streetcar until the horses were in front of the train, and that he could not possibly have stopped in time to avoid the accident.

Police Captain Ward arrested Engineer Jones, Fireman Campbell and a man named Henry Hughes, who was riding in the cab of the engine. They will be held at the station until after the coroner's inquest.

BERMUDA GARDEN TRUCK.

Members of the Assembly Pleading for a Lower Tariff.

NEW YORK, July 18.—Thomas J. Watson and Samuel C. Masters, members of the Bermuda assembly, arrived from Bermuda on the steamship Orinoco and will go to Washington this week to confer on the tariff question with some of the congressmen who are likely to serve on the ways and means committee of the house.

They have been delegated by the Bermuda assembly to ask for a reduction in the duty levied here on potatoes, onions and tomatoes, the principal exports of the islands to the United States. They have prepared a statement to be submitted to the ways and means committee, in which they say that the amount of duty paid to the United States in 1892 exceeds the entire tariff revenue of the islands by $15,000.

Mr. Masters and Mr. Watson said they did not yet know what reduction they would ask for. They wished, before maturing their plans, to confer with some New York business men and with Senator Mills and Congressman W. L. Wilson.

John F. Poole Dead.

NEW YORK, July 18.—John F. Poole, formerly manager of the Grand Opera House, this city, and later at Niblo's Garden, died yesterday from dropsy at his home at Sheephead Bay. He was 58 years old.

EN ROUTE HOME.

Germany's World's Fair Commissioners Recalled to Berlin.

CHICAGO, July 18.—Imperial German Commissioner Wermuth of Germany bade a personal and official goodbye to the director general, President Higginbotham and other officials of the exposition. He departed for New York or the exposition flyer, sailing for Hamburg Thursday on the Normannia.

As to when he will return to Chicago if at all, Herr Wermuth knows not. He has been summoned to Berlin and will do his best to induce Emperor William to visit the fair. If he is successful the commissioner will come back with the Kaiser. All that Herr Wermuth knows is that some member of the imperial family will visit Chicago, Prince Henry of Prussia for one. Carl Hagenbeck, the Barnum of Germany, returned to his savage pets on Midway Plaisance yesterday after a visit to the fatherland.

Homing Pigeons.

Captain J. J. Thompson and Sergeant Creighton of the United States signal corps liberated 48 homing pigeons yesterday morning on the government building plaza. The birds will fly to Philadelphia.

A telegram was received at the signal corps office from Newark, N. J., saying that the first of the 85 pigeons who started on their flight to that city Saturday at 10:10 a. m., arrived there at 7:18 yesterday morning.

ENGLISH BARMAIDS.

SHOULD BE MADE A STATE.

The Tribal Laws of Indian Territory Considered Inadequate.

FORT GIBSON, I. T., July 18.—For some time efforts have been made to induce somebody of unquestioned standing to take the initiative in a movement looking toward statehood for the five civilized nations. This week Muskogee Phoenix contains a communication from ex-Indian Agent Bennett, which goes far toward gratifying the wishes of the statehood element. Mr. Bennett was recently removed from office on account of the stand he took in preventing the execution of certain Choctaw Indians, but the letter above referred to was written some time prior to his removal.

Mr. Bennett thinks that Indian Territory should have better laws. He says the tribal laws are inadequate to the needs of the fast increasing population; that what laws the Indians have are only partially enforced, and the general government runs over them roughshod whenever it sees fit. He also refers to the manner in which the Indian is constantly being robbed by the lobbyist, or third congress. He thinks congress has the power, regardless of treaties, to remedy these wrongs, and that something ought to be done for their protection as well as other citizens.

In short, he is an advocate of statehood, and recommends that a mass-meeting be held at Muskogee soon to devise a way to get at legislation that will relieve the people and give them a government that will protect all citizens alike.

This is considered as the beginning of a big movement that will result in the disruption of the present tribal relations.

GRAND STAND COLLAPSES.

One Thousand Men and Women Piled Together in Inextricable Confusion.

MONTREAL, July 18.—A grand stand, containing 1,000 men, women and children, collapsed at the Park Royal Sunday evening. It was the third day's celebration of the Fall of the Bastille, under the auspices of the Union Nationale Francaise. A terrible panic ensued among the 10,000 people who thronged the park. The unfortunate who went down with the stand lay piled in inextricable confusion amid the wreck of beams and planking, while over them rushed and trampled the fear-maddened crowd who filled the reserve seat enclosure.

At the moment of the collapse Toner and Froble, the American aerial artists, were on the trapeze, but they, too, like the employees, lost their heads and joined in the mad rush. A general call for help was telephoned to the city. Six ambulances from the general and Notre Dame hospitals, with a corps of surgeons, responded. No one was killed, although many were injured seriously.

Only a Dispute.

PORTLAND, Ind., July 14.—The report that the R. A. Horne Produce company of Union City had failed is a mistake. There is simply a disputed account between the company and a New York firm. The company has eight branches, one of the largest of which is located here, and has $170,000 capital.

Shot His Mother.

TONTONAGONY, O., July 18.—Mrs. Baighle roused her son, 21, by throwing cold water in his face. This angered the young man, and he shot his mother in the side.

RUSSIA OUR FRIEND.

The Permanent Naval Station Gladly Welcomed.

SUCH IS THE LATEST REPORT

Warm Friendship Between American Officers and the Czar's Men—Some Striking Remarks Made by a Russian Officer Regarding a Wild West and a Wild East.

NEW YORK, July 18.—The Times says:

Almost to a unit the Russian officers were delighted with the news that Russia would have a permanent station here, though it was remarked by several that the information was in no wise a surprise. From what could be gleaned, the officers of the Russian vessels regard the permanent maintenance of a fleet of their own ships in American waters as the most certain way to accentuate a feeling of comradeship between the officers of the navy of the United States and that of Russia.

England Our Greatest Enemy.

Russian officers now here when in conversation with United States officers have pointed out that England is the greatest enemy of the United States of America. They refer to history in their arguments to prove this assertion, and declare that no late events have demonstrated a sincerely friendly regard on the part of the British government for that of the United States. Inasmuch, they declare, as England is the natural enemy of the United States and the greatest enemy Russia possesses, then the United States of America and Russia are by the very nature of things bound in friendship against a common foe.

Only Russia and the United States.

The Russian officers here argue that from geographical reasons and the extent of territory of the two countries the signs all point to Russia and the United States finally possessing the entire world.

"You have," said one prominent officer in the Russian fleet within the last few days, to a reporter, "your wild west. We have our wild east. Soon your wild west and our wild east will meet. The meeting will be to your westward and to our eastward. Who knows but that some day our two countries may be neighbors and meet, save for the intervening Atlantic to your eastward and to our westward?"

Great Friends.

An American officer in discussing the announced proposed action of the Russian government, said that, speaking for himself and knowing the opinions of the majority of his own particular coterie of brother officers, there existed, though perhaps through a sense of gratitude alone, a strong liking for the Russians, and that the more the Russian and American officers were thrown together the more they appeared to recognize as prevailing a strong feeling of comradeship.

In view, he added, of what appeared to be a close diplomatic understanding between the two governments of Russia and the United States, and the natural inference that an understanding on certain broad lines existed on the part of the two nations the maintenance of such an understanding would seem to justify the cultivation of a close acquaintance between Russian and American officers.

The officers of both services, he believed, might profit professionally by a knowledge of the respective naval methods as practiced in the two fleets and the mutual knowledge might be of immense future benefit to Russia and the United States. The maintenance by Russia of a permanent fleet of warships in United States waters is not understood here by either American or Russian officers to mean that the Russian fleet will remain continuously in New York waters. New York is understood to be the selected port for Russia's depot of supplies, but New York will be visited only so often as, in the opinion of the Russian flag officer in command, is deemed advisable.

It is essential that the warships while in commission do a large share of cruising in order to maintain proper efficiency. For this reason one or more of the Russian ships now in port will, it was announced Sunday, leave New York this week for the target practice at sea. Newport, it is said, will later on be visited. The Russian ships which will leave here will return to join the big Russian battleship Nicolai I, now on her way across the Atlantic for this port.

The Nicolai I will be the most powerful battleship which will have ever entered the port of New York. It is safe to say that she will be the most powerful ship to have entered United States waters. The Nicolai I measures 8,440 tons in displacement, and carries two 12-inch 52-ton breech-loading rifles, four 9-inch 19-ton breech-loading rifles, eight 6-inch 6-ton breech-loading rifles, 10 rapid-fire guns, eight machine guns and six torpedo tubes. The Nicolai I is expected daily.

Arrested For Robbery.

COLUMBUS, O., July 18.—The police have arrested Harry Snowden, F. H. Ackerman and Gus McCarty for the robbery of E. P. Houghton of Richmond. The latter is proprietor of the "Accommodation" saloon on East Town street, where the robbery is claimed to have occurred.

Death From Hydropneumonia.

ASBURY PARK, July 18.—Miss Lizzie Byram, aged 18 years, daughter of A. J. Byram, a manufacturer of patent medicines at Newark, died at her summer home here yesterday of hydropneumonia, the result of a bite from a pet dog inflicted early last April.

THE Bill McKinley-Republican protection plan is now in the full tide of its application, remarks the Washington correspondent of the Enquirer. Yes, and look what "glorious times" we are having.

THE report circulated at Mt. Carmel, that Mrs. Mary F. Power, of that place, is an "occasional contributor of local items to the BULLETIN" is not true. Mrs. Power has never contributed any items, local or otherwise, to this paper.

THE Public Ledger's snipe yesterday had no more resemblance to that long-legged and long-billed bird than a crow has to a Shanghai rooster. And whoever saw a snipe in a tree? We doubt now whether the editor of the Ledger would know a snipe if he should run across one.

AN item appeared in the Mt. Carmel news published in the BULLETIN last week stating that a man at that place had married his mother-in-law and was living with her in defiance of the law. The party in question has a certificate showing he was legally married to the woman, the ceremony being solemnized in Indiana.

CONGRESSMAN ENOCHE, of Ohio, died a few days ago, and before his body was laid to rest the district was swarming with candidates for the vacant seat. This unseemly haste on the part of the politicians is enough to disgust sensible people, and the voters should see that these "early birds" don't get the "worm" this time.

THE World's Fair is to be closed hereafter on Sundays, but what credit do the directors deserve in the matter? Not much. It was only when they were convinced that a Sunday fair was a financial failure that they voted to close the gates. But they have learned a thing or two, namely, that it is better to keep one's promises than to break them, and that it is well to give some heed to the sentiment of the better class of people of the land.

PRIMARY ELECTIONS.

Important Provisions of the New Law on the Subject—The Penalties.

The approaching Democratic primary will be held in accordance with the provisions of the general law on the subject, embraced in article XII of the new election law. Section 2 of said chapter says:

All primary elections held in this Commonwealth by the various political parties shall be held and conducted in the same form and manner and under the same requirements as are or shall be provided by law for the holding of regular State elections, except in such particulars as are herein excepted.

Section 3 says:
Any act or deed denounced an offense by the general laws of the State concerning elections shall be an offense in all primary elections, and shall be punished in the same form and manner as is provided for the punishment of similar offenses by the general laws; and all the penalties and provisions of the general laws shall apply in such cases with equal force, and shall be as effective as though fully set out in this article.

Whenever it shall be desired by the committee or governing authority of any political party to hold a primary election said committee or governing authority shall, at least forty days prior to such primary election, give public notice thereof, by posting such notice at the court house door and at least twenty other public places in the county or district. Such notice shall state the date of such proposed primary election, the hours between which it will be held, the offices for which candidates are to be nominated, and the places at which polls will be opened at such primary elections.

All persons who are legal voters shall have the right to participate in such primary elections, subject to such additional political qualifications as may be prescribed by the committee. In case the officers of such primary election be in doubt as to the right of any person to vote, such person shall be sworn by the judges of election, and if, after examination as to his right to vote, he be allowed to vote the word "sworn" shall be marked on the stub of the ballot containing such person's name. Any bystander may also challenge the right of any person to vote, and in all such cases, such person whose right to vote is so challenged, shall be sworn and examined, as the law provides.

The officers for each precinct in all primary elections shall be of the same number as is required by law to hold regular State elections, and their duties and responsibilities shall be precisely the same as those of legally appointed and regularly qualified officers of regular State elections. They shall be appointed by the regular organized and constituted committee or governing authority of the political party holding such primary election, and shall, before entering upon the discharge of their respective duties, take the same oath required to be taken by officers of regular State elections. The officers in each precinct shall be selected from lists furnished by the various candidates, such lists to be furnished by the respective candidates to the committee at least ten days before such primary election, and shall be as nearly equally divided as possible as to judges, clerks and sheriffs among the various candidates.

The officers of primary elections have the same powers and privileges as officers of regular State elections and are subject to same penalties as the officers of regular State elections.

Any person desiring to submit his name to the voters in a primary election shall, not later than fifteen days next preceding the holding of such primary election, apprise the committee of the political party holding such primary of the fact that he is a candidate, and upon complying with the conditions prescribed by the committee for the regulation of candidates, shall be declared to be a candidate, and any person who has not given such notice to the committee shall not have his name printed on the ballots used in such primary election; but any person desiring to vote for one other than the persons whose names are printed on such ballots shall have the right to do so by writing the name of the person for whom he desires to vote in the space on the ballot set apart for the names of the candidates for such office as he may desire such person so voted for to hold.

The returns of all primary elections shall be deposited at such place as the committee shall designate and within such time as is provided by law in the case of State elections. The Executive Committee adopted a resolution at the recent meeting that the returns of the approaching primary shall be deposited with the Secretary, Deputy County Clerk John C. Lovel, at the County Clerk's office.

The law also provides for counting the ballots and certifying the result and for settling all contests in cases of a tie vote.

THE GROWTH OF CYCLING!

For an evidence of the really phenomenal growth of bicycling in this country one has only to glance at the club fixtures published almost daily in the Herald. All over the country road and track races are scheduled months ahead, and thousands upon thousands of wheelmen take part in them. The fact that the use of the wheel is rapidly growing in favor with women, and that reputable physicians everywhere indorse the exercise as one of the most health-promoting for both sexes, doubtless have much to do with the sport's advancement. One thing is certain, outside of racing and baseball no pastime has taken such a hold on our health-loving people as has cycling, and for personal benefits it is superior to both of these.—New York Herald.

"DAY OF JUDGMENT."

Not the End of the World, But a Period When the Unrighteous Will be Punished.

Lieutenant C. L. A. Totten, of New Haven, Ct., in an interview, gives the following as his opinion of the recent financial crisis: "It seems inconceivable to me that amid all this rapidly increasing epidemic of disaster, misnamed 'accident,' no one dares, in spilling a myriad of editorials all through the press, to assign the real cause and to add a sober comment to the warnings I have so persistently uttered during the last four years. We are nearing the sound of the eleventh stroke of the midnight hour. Its nature is apparently financial, but in reality the confusion of affairs enter into every order of human policy. The human race has sown to the wind, and is now about to reap the whirlwind. We are at the termination of the 'times of the Gentiles,' and the period of judgment has actually begun. Things will not get better, but rather worse. In March I pointed out the sounding of the tenth stroke of the midnight hour and announced the June solstice for the eleventh. I now reiterate the statement that was made, to-wit: That the autumnal equinox will mark the twelfth stroke. Thereafter it is 'low twelve fully come,' and the consequences will follow in an orderly and chronological manner. It would seem that every man and woman, at least of my own race, Israel, would re-read, and that right carefully, the parable of the wise and foolish virgins in this connection. It would then be seen that it is by no means the end of the world that is at hand that I am so often misrepresented as expecting, but far different matters. We are approaching the crisis which must precede the millennium. The optimistic day is over, and the scene of facts drawn the whistle wherewith he seeks to keep his courage up.

"These troubles, which are matters of common conversation nowadays, are worldwide. They will not down. Their center is everywhere, their circumference nowhere. They mean disaster to rotten institutions, the bursting of all inflated enterprises, the exposure of deceits of every description and the trial as by fire of every man's work. You may call it what you will. I call it by its proper name as written by the prophets of Jehovah. It is judgment. Its duration as it were a 'week' of years, and for that matter all the years that follow even to the millennium, a duration of one thousand years, or a day of the Lord, as St. Peter calls it, will be a period of judgment to all who do unrighteousness therein. But enough; a word to the wise is sufficient. My time is all occupied in close chronological study. I would gladly write the manuscript detailing these unanswerable vindications of the Scripture in my life's blood if that would insure their speedy examination at the hands of those for whom they are published. But all this is idle; it seems impossible to reach those whom I long with unattainable anxiety to bring into a knowledge of what now must shortly come to pass. It is a case of fiat justitia ruat coelum, for as in the days of Noah, so shall it be in the days of the Son of Man. There are signs enough to awake the dead, and I believe, as it is written, that sign itself shall not be wanting."

Maysville's New Enterprise.

The Commercial Building Trust of Louisville, Ky., through its general representative Mr. P. T. Coleman, assisted by special agent Mr. S. E. Haynes, effected a branch organization of this association Monday evening. Messrs. Coleman and Haynes have been in the city several days in the interest of this institution, and have succeeded in securing the substantial co-operation of some of our best citizens for this new enterprise. Over one hundred shares were secured for the organization, and as these gentlemen will remain here at least a month in the work to assist the local agent, Mr. Charles Daly, it is safe to say that several hundred more will be placed before they depart.

This association is highly recommended by the leading banks and business men of Louisville and the State at large, and is without a doubt one of the best institutions of this kind that has ever visited this city. As a savings medium such institutions have long been recognized as above par, and since its first organization the Commercial Building Trust has kept well up to the front. In fact, its progress has been phenomenal.

The organization of the branch was effected at a meeting of the stockholders at the office of G. W. Sulser, with H. H. Collins presiding as temporary Chairman and G. W. Sulser as temporary Secretary. The preliminaries are being satisfactorily arranged. The following officers and directors were elected: H. H. Collins, President; Geo. H. Heiser, Vice President; Geo. W. Sulser, Secretary; L. W. Galbraith, Attorney, and Dr. H. K. Adamson, B. W. Goodman, Will G. Heiser, Jacob Wormald, J. Wesley Lee, August Schaeffer, H. T. Haulman and Dr. J. H. Samuels, Directors. The Mitchell, Finch & Co.'s Bank was chosen for the depository, and the following Committee on Appraisal and Insurance was appointed: Geo. H. Heiser, Jacob Wormald, J. W. Lee, B. W. Goodman and Dr. H. K. Adamson. Local agent, Charles Daly.

This is the 154th branch organized of this progressive association in successful operation, and it certainly begins with the most favorable prospects. The gentlemen whose names are connected with this worthy enterprise is sufficient guarantee of its success.

For sterling silverware—knives, forks, spoons, fancy articles and novelties—go to Ballenger, the jeweler. His goods are warranted. His stock of watches and jewelry is the best manufactured, and that's the kind to buy. Always bear that in mind.

The First National Bank makes an excellent showing, as usual for this solid institution. It has nearly $500,000 loans and discounts, a surplus fund of $105,000, nearly $10,000 undivided profits and nearly $300,000 individual deposits. See statement elsewhere.

Why pay from 15 to 20 per cent. more for watches when you can buy a fine gold watch at P. J. Murphy's, the jeweler, and save that difference? No better goods made, and I guarantee to save you the difference stated above. Now is the time to buy. Successor to Hopper & Murphy.

Now is the time to buy a lawn mower. Never before so low in price. Frank Owens Hardware Company say they will close out all on hand at cost. They do not wish to carry over until next year. Go and see them for a big bargain. Screen doors and windows, ice cream freezers.

THE COMING CONFERENCE.

Bishop Galloway To Preside—About Two Hundred Delegates Expected.

The next annual session of the Kentucky Conference of the M. E. Church, South, will be held in this city, commencing Wednesday, September 13, and continuing several days. Bishop Galloway will preside. About two hundred delegates, including the ministers of the conference, are expected.

Rev. C. J. Nugent, pastor of the church in this city, and the members of his congregation are arranging to extend a cordial welcome to the visitors, and that the delegates will be most hospitably entertained during their stay in Maysville goes without saying. At the meeting at the church last evening, committees were appointed to secure homes for the delegates during the conference. Mr. John W. Boulden acted as Secretary of the meeting. The committees are as follows:

First Ward—Mrs. J. B. Dye, Miss Mary Nolin, Miss Anna Shackelford and Mrs. E. P. Browning. Second Ward—Mrs. D. Perrine, Mrs. L. Dinnitt, Mrs. W. C. Sadler, Mrs. G. W. Geisel and Mrs. L. M. Keith. Sixth Ward—Miss Mamie Owens, Miss Bertha Danton and Mrs. George Burrows.

The ladies composing these committees are requested to meet at the church (South Methodist) next Thursday evening (July 20) at 7:30 o'clock, to arrange for above work.

CHIPPED and corned beef, Calloun's.

WHAT can be more pleasant after these warm days than a delightful evening ride on the steamer Laurance? She leaves the wharf on Tuesdays and Fridays at 7 p. m., standard time, making the run up and down in front of city—a ride of over seven miles for the sum of 10 cents. Go down this evening and try one.

The proprietors of the Misfit Clothing Parlor at No. 128 Market street find it necessary to enlarge their quarters and have secured the adjoining room formerly occupied by the late W. T. McDaniel. Both rooms will be thrown into one. In order to make the change the firm is closing out the present stock at a sacrifice sale which will continue through the week. See advertisement.

A BRANCH of the Schweinfurth "heaven" has been located in Lexington. It has only four inmates, the deluded creatures all being well connected. It is said that Schweinfurth will visit Lexington in August, and in the event that he does a coat of tar and feathers will probably be meted out to him. Public sentiment is in favor of driving the colony from the city, and it is said that plans to that effect will soon be put in operation.

FOUR-ROUND SLUGGING MATCH.

Austin Gibbons of Paterson, N. J., and "Bull" McCarthy Meet.

NEWARK, N. J., July 18.—One of the most spirited four-round slugging matches that has been fought in this section of the United States for many years was the battle which took place here last night between Austin Gibbons of Paterson, N. J., and "Bull" McCarthy of Philadelphia. Gibbons not only offered McCarthy $150 if he failed to knock him out in three rounds, but actually extended the same offer to Joe Harmon, champion lightweight of New York state, but he met with a surprise when he started in to down the Philadelphia.

Gibbons opened hostilities and forced the fighting but McCarthy held his ground well. Gibbons did some wicked fighting and dealt some awful blows upon McCarthy, but he could not knock him out. In the last round Gibbons resorted to some very rough fighting, but McCarthy fought back for all he was worth. Gibbons was wild at the call of time and offered McCarthy $50 to fight him one more round, but "Bull" only laughed at him and walked off with his $150.

Austin Gibbons was relieved from his second fight, much to his dissatisfaction, by Joe Harmon refusing to meet him on the grounds that Gibbons was too heavy.

The four round bout between Australian Billy Murphy, ex-champion featherweight of the world, and Edward Listman, 125 pound champion of New York state, was a drawn battle.

Complete Manhood
and how to attain it.
At last a medical work that tells the causes, describes the effects, points the remedy. This is scientifically the most valuable, artistically the most beautiful, medical book that has appeared for years; 96 pages, every page bearing a half-tone illustration in tints. Some of the subjects treated are Nervous Debility, Impotency, Sterility, Development, Varicocele, The Husband, Those Intending Marriage, etc. Every man who would know the grand truths, the plain facts, the old secrets, and the new discoveries of medical science as applied to married life, who would stone for past follies and avoid future pitfalls, should write for this wonderful little book. It will be sent free, under seal. Address the publishers,
